So why not join us?

You can rely on our travel experiences over the past eight years, our two year residency in Thailand, our insider knowledge and expertise to show you around the most exotic and beautiful country, that is the "land of smiles", THAILAND

Fighters (T-shirt) Tour - October 2005

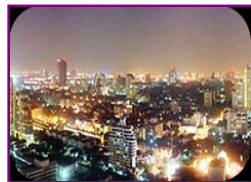

Current tour overview:

You will be training with the very best of Thailand, approximately 14 gyms, 42 trainers, 400 fighters, in 6 different towns, cities, and islands!

There is a serious nightlife schedule for this tour for those of you interested in going just for a holiday (not training), which is fine and good. As it is expected that people will start to fall by the way side around the 5th day, so there will be a flip side to the training - Exploring!

Let me assure you, this tour is not about collecting t-shirts, it's about experiencing the different types of training available in Thailand. The idea is to show you, that there isn't just one way to learn Muay Thai, there isn't just one camp, and there isn't just one style. It is hoped from this tour, you will be so knowledgeable about what goes on in the training camps of Thailand, that you can help spread the word of - Muay Thai!

Bangkok

Banging in Bangkok.

Known to the Thai's as Grang Thiep, you will get to experience the day to day hustle and bustle of this explosive metropolis. As we travel around BKK from one venue to another, you will get to travel on bus's, boats, Sky trains, motorbikes, taxis and Tuk-Tuk's. The bars, clubs, shops, temples, people and culture all waiting to be discovered.

See here for Bangkok.

The Baiyoke Sky Hotel Restaurant.

As part of the package, we will be dining at Asia's tallest hotel. The Baiyoke hotel's top floor is dedicated to foods of the world. With its 360 degree restaurant giving you a birds eye view of Bangkok, this is not a meal to be missed.

See here for Baiyoke Hotel.

Chat-U-Chak (JJ) market.

Claimed to be the biggest outdoor weekend market, you will get the opportunity to buy all your souvenirs and presents here.

In the hustle, bustle, heat and humidity, this market will leave you with an empty wallet and very sore feet by the end of the day. Saying all that, I guarantee you will fall in love with this place, its a mini Thai culture show.

See here for Chatuchak.

Khao San Road – Backpackers haven.

We will be visiting Khao San road several times, once to experience the daytime hustle and bustle for foreigners money as the Thais do what they do best, business! The second time is to see the flip side of Khao San, the nightlife. Completely unique in Thailand, Khao San road explodes into an envious party street as soon as the sun goes down.

See here for Khao San Road.

Pattaya

Party in Pattaya

Welcome to Thailand's party town!! There is nowhere quite like Pattaya anywhere else in Thailand. Full of bars, clubs, and party people.

This town sure knows how to have a good time, most people usually leave with an empty wallet or with something they didn't want. Either way they know that they have been to Pattaya and had a good time.

A one-mile stretch of beach life can be found in this town with all the usual beach activities cram packed onto it. So if you enjoy banana boat, horseback, jet ski, powerboat, wind surfing and paragliding rides, then this is most definitely the place to be.

See here for Pattaya.

Walking the Street

Also known as bankrupt alley, given this name after so many foreigners lost all their money to the beautiful local attractions. We will be spending some time down this street, as one of the main boxing arenas is found right in the middle of the bars, and under two of the biggest clubs in Pattaya.

See here for Walking Street.

Black Beard

This has to be one of the best live music joints in Thailand, named after the lead guitarist, here you will see anyone just joining in on the jam sessions that have now become world renowned. We will be enjoying a few classic rock tunes here before going of into the night for some exploration.

Chiang Mai

Charming Chiang Mai

The Northern capital of Thailand has so much to offer a traveller such as us, that you will find it hard not to fall in love with this tranquil city. With the beautiful morning views, breathtaking temples and the marvellous hill tribes people walking around, you will find it hard to imagine anywhere else quite as unique as this in the world.

See here for Chiang Mai.

Boating Barbeque

We will be having a lazy Sunday afternoon BBQ at one of the largest boating lakes in northern Thailand. The lake sits at the base of the mountainous range that surround Chiang Mai, and is frequented by the locals who come to enjoy the fishing, swimming, boating, drinking, eating and general feel good atmosphere that this place has.

Doi Suthep

The place where millions make pilgrimage during the Chinese new year, fortunately you won't have to walk up this 10km steep mountain, whilst pulling a one ton base drum to get to the beautiful temple and view at the top. Here you will be given the opportunity to make and be given a blessing, at one of the most amazing temples in the world. There are plenty of photo opportunities here, as around every corner there is something magnificent and awe-inspiring.

See here for Doi Suthep.

Doi Pui national park

Then it's a further three kilometres up the hill to Doi Pui's observation point, where you can look out over a breathtaking forest covered mountain range. Then its down into the village to meet and greet the local Karon tribes people, where you will also be able to take a look at their freak show of a museum, and try your hand at picking herbs.

See here for Doi Pui.

Phuket

Phucket Paradise

Karon is the only beach on the island worth staying at and you will be staying right in the middle of it!

Not to quite and not to loud, this pristine, crystal clear, empty stretch of beach will leave you wide eyed and your mouth open.

The nightlife here is more on the quite gentle side, but don't worry about that, you're only a five minute tuk-tuk ride away from Patong's mad nightlife.

You will have the opportunity to go scuba diving, horseback riding on the beach, deep sea fishing or just simply relaxing on the beach. However you spend your time, one thing is for sure, you will love your time spent here. See here for Phucket.

Kata Muay Thai

You will be welcomed by two of the Lanna Camps previous fighters, who now help run this new gym. Training with Kru Boon, who starred in the film 'Beautiful Boxer'. This gym is well equipped, and well situated within the beautiful hillsides of Phuket.

See here for Kata Camp.

Phucket Fantasy

If you have never visited an amusement park, then you must go here. Phucket Fantasy where you have to see it to believe it, truly magnificent. See here for Phucket Fantasy.

Kho Lanta

Kicking in Kho Lanta

After a short tranquil ferry crossing through one of Thailand's pristine and most famous national parks, where the film 'The Beach' was set.

The beautiful scenic view on the way there is one not to be missed by anyone who loves aquatic life.

This area is not only famous for the setting of the film 'The Beach', but also the James Bond island can be found here, as seen in the movie 'Man with the Golden Gun'.

See here for James Bond Island & 'The Beach'.

Here the accommodation is a traditional style bamboo hut on the beach, no mod cons are needed here. This is a tropical paradise at its best, and everything is taken care of for you.

We will be training at the newly developed Lanta Muay Thai Gym which has been built on the beautiful tropical forest hillsides of Kho Lanta.

Overseeing the ocean, this will be a training session not to miss, as the fresh sea air cools you down after a hard work out.

See here for Kho Lanta.

Kho Samui

Sensual Samui

After arriving at the most unique airport in the world, we will be dropping into the Monkey bar for a quick welcoming drink, before being whisked off to our little hide away right on Lamai beach, with our very own swimming pool and beach right outside. We will be situated only three minutes away from the world famous W.M.C. training camp, and the local nightlife. See here for Kho Samui.

Bargirl boxing stadium

The ultimate 'Lets sort it out' problem solver. Take two drunk, pissed off, irate time bombs, put them in a boxing ring surrounded by their friends and staff members. And let them batter hell out of each other, over a stupid foreign man who wanted to have a bit of the other, with the other girl. Great!!

Ziko's Brazilian BBQ 'n' Grill

Here you play a game of cat and mouse with the attractive skewer holders, who come to your table and try to stuff you with the most delicious barbequed meat and fish. There is a way out of the continuous bombardment of tempting, trouser stretching foods, simply turn your drinks coaster over to 'stop, I can't handle anymore', then they leave you alone, or at least until you turn it over again, again and again.

Full Moon Party - Kho Pang Nang (optional)

Oh yes, in the back of a high-speed powerboat, making our way out to the middle of the ocean. To a small island called Kho Pang Nang, why? To join in one of the biggest beach parties in the world (as seen in the film 'The Beach'), taking in the atmosphere, the banging music, the full moon hanging just off the sea, out in the bay, having it large!! This is one party not to miss. See here for Full Moon Party.

Bars & Clubs

What trip to Thailand would be complete without at least one look in a bar. Fortunately or unfortunately for you (if you can't keep up), we will be visiting some, if not most of the mind blowing bars in the country.

First stop will be 'Pussy Galore' at Patpong. Where everything goes!! You will see the real Amazing Thailand here!?! Then you will be taking part in the now famous Singto Tuk-Tuk race, from Patpong to Soi Nanna, last one there buys the drinks...

Second stop will be 'Schools Out' on Soi Nanna, the lights out illuminated body painting and Heineken beer bottle show are something else. We will also be dropping in to Soi Cowboy, America's no.1 R & R entertainment zone... you will find out why! Lastly a word of warning, keep your money close, and the rubbers closer!! A box of Singto condoms will be provided.

See here for Patpong & Soi Nanna & Soi Cowboy.

Hard Rock Cafe – Bangkok

As a warm up to one of the maddest nights you're likely to have in Bangkok, we will be having a few drinks here. Listen to some live music, soak up the atmosphere, and take a look at the upper class beautiful people of Bangkok. Free entry & one drink is included.

See here for Hard Rock.

Bubbles - Chiang Mai

The main foreigner club in Chiang Mai, playing awesome upfront hardcore. The Thai's tend to like it hard and fast, same as the girls! If you leave this joint alone at the end of the night, then there's something wrong with you! If the girls don't get you, then unfortunately the Ladyboys will.

Spot Light Strip Club - Chiang Mai.

We will be making a stop at Chiang Mai's only strip club. Believe me when I say, this is a club worth going to. It beats the butts of most clubs in Bangkok. Pure adult pleasure!

Training

Whether you are champion or a beginner, each one of the camps you'll be visiting, will be able to take care of your personal needs. Professional in their approach, these camps have already opened their arms and made many foreign boxers' feel at home whilst training with them.

You will be able to meet some of the world famous trainers and fighters such as, Mr ApIdej Sit-Hirun (Fairtex) , Mr Yodthong Senanan (Sidyodthong), Mr Anuwat (Kaewsamrit) and Mr Wanchana (Sasiprapa) .

So why not become one of the few to have experienced Muay Thai in the motherland and, come training with us?

Experience world class training at the following camps;

Temples

The Grand Palace – Bangkok

This beautiful palace is the second home to the King of Thailand. You will be able to walk around the various beautiful temples, including the one that holds the Emerald Buddha. Maybe take a look at the ancient scribed walls of history. Or walk through the museum of Thai History. Click here for Grand Palace.

Wat Pho Temple – Bangkok

It will be a Sky train and river cruise along the Chao Phraya to Wat Pho. Walk around the beautiful and ancient surroundings of Wat Pho, enjoy the carvings, sculptures and possibly the largest Gold reclining Buddha in the world.

Then enjoy an hour or two of Traditional Thai Massage from the originators of the art (optional). Here at Wat Pho, is where this ancient art started and is continued to be taught to all who are willing to learn. Click here for Wat Pho & Massage.

Wat Arun – Bangkok

We will be taking an afternoon rivercruise down the Chao Phraya river past the 'Temple of Dawn', also known as Wat Arun. Best viewed at sunset, this will be a magical experience not to miss. Click here for Wat Arun.

Doi Suthep Temple - Chiang Mai

This arguably is the most tranquil of temples in Thailand, beautiful. Gold leaf floating in the air, incense burning, prayer candles alight and people being blessed by monks. This is truly a wonderful place to be. Click here for Doi Suthep.

Stadiums

We will be visiting the Lumpinee Stadium

Where you will be sitting ringside, and feeling the blood splatters!!!
Watch the true champions of the world battle it out over 5 rounds.

You will be able to go back stage and meet the champions as they get ready to enter the ring, have some pictures taken, and wish them the best of luck.

Take in the betting, the atmosphere, the excitement and the heat!

Visit to Rajadamnurn Stadium

It will be a short stop here, as you get the opportunity to buy all the Thai Boxing equipment you want. Then take a look around at the Rajadamnurn wall of fame off current champions.

Gawilla Stadium - Chiang Mai

The one and only stadium in North that holds quality championship bouts, to match those found in Bangkok. This stadium and the beer bar centre are two of the most popular stadiums for western Thai boxers looking to test their skills in Chiang Mai. You got to see it!

Chaweng Stadium – Kho Samui

A newly built stadium in the heart of Chaweng beach, where some of the worlds best come to fight and compete.

Adventure

There are so many different ways to for fill your holiday in Thailand. Here are just a few things you could take part in:

Frequently Asked Question's

Why Should I Goto Thailand with you?

First of all you will probably save yourself a hell of a lot of money. And secondly, I will show you around Thailand in a way, you will not find anywhere else. I know Thailand very well, all the places and all the things we do, I have already done. So you can be assured of not being ripped off by taxis, tuk-tuks, dodgy night spots and gem merchants. I love Thailand, and I love to show it off, to its best!!

Okay, but what if I want to do my own thing?

Excellent, there is no better way to explore Thailand, than on your own. "I am your guide, not your father. I will guide you, not tell you!". This was one of my favourite phrases from the last tour. Why? There is an outline of activities for the tour, that you can either follow or not, it's up to you!

Can I bring my girlfriend with me?

I know it may look like a lads holiday, but be assured, it is! No joking. There is so much going on during the tour, that the holiday caters for everyone. I am always accompanied by my Thai wife, so if the ladies want to go off and do the girly thing. Then they can, as they will have a guide who can go with them.

How safe is Thailand?

There are problems everywhere in the world, and Thailand, I am happy to say, is safer than my own town. No, really, I joke you not! I have never had any trouble in Thailand, ever! The only people you need to watch out for, are other foreigners.

What clothes do I need to take?

Mostly shorts and t-shirts, due to the heat. You will need some smart clothes, as we try and make one or two nights glam nights. Jeans are advisable for temples and going out to the bars at night. Do not take a coat to the airport or the train station, just put more layers of clothes on for leaving England.

I understand you dont like suitcases, why?

I'm sorry, it's just when I see people with suitcases, I can't help but laugh. It's like they are limited, constricted, unable to be flexible or free. I would prefer if you used a large sports holdall, with wheels and the ability to lock the main compartment. That way if you need to, you can throw it on your back, and use it like a backpack. Also these types of bags are easier to stuff into taxis, minibuses and trains.

ATM's or Travellers cheques?

I hate travellers cheques for two reasons. First of all they cost more in the long run to buy, then cash in, than it does just to pull money out of the ATMs in Thailand. Secondly, when you lose them, you try and get replacements whilst still on your holiday. Not bloody possible!! You find ATMs everywhere in Thailand, but the foreign exchanges you need to change your T.C's, are not so abundant.

What's this optional thing on the itinerary?

Some activities can add greatly to the overall cost of your holiday, by making some optional, it brings the cost of the holiday down. Also some people may not want to get involved in the all the activities, choosing to do their own thing instead.

What injections do I need, and do I have to take malaria tablets?

Goto your GP and they will arrange all necessary injections that you will need for your trip. I suggest that you do not take malaria tablets, they ruin your holiday in one way or another. Over the past 8 years, I have never needed them, but again it's your choice and I am un-accountable for your decision.

Do I need travel insurance?

I recommend that you do get travel insurance, just in case of the worst. I travel without, because I feel confident with the top class care you get at the Thai hospitals. Also I have never had any problems with flights. Please remember, it's your choice, your decision, it's up to you!

Do I need a visa for Thailand?

All British citizens receive their visas during the flight to Thailand. It is free. All other nationalities will have to get in contact with the Thai embassy themselves. Please ensure you have a valid passport for the duration of your stay in Thailand.

How much spending money will I need?

You can easily budget yourself to £100 a week. But if you decide to go mad with your shopping or do any additional activities, you will need a budget of around £150-£200 a week. It's the cost of the flight, that makes Thailand expensive, nothing else. Most of your transportation, drinks, food, activities and accommodation have already been included with your tour package (It's good to just have a visa card as backup, just in case of emergency or any big purchases.)

Payment, how does that work?

There are 3 payments for the tour:

- Initial deposit - non refundable £100, this is to ensure your placement on the tour. There is a limit of 14 people per tour (minimum 5 people), so the deposit is required asap, to guarantee your seat (This deposit is part of the overall cost of the tour, not a separate fee. If the number of people traveling is less than 5, and the tour is cancelled, you will receive your Initial deposit back.)
- Main deposit - is to cover the cost of the flight. It is usually required several months before the tour, to ensure the group all fly together (Depending on the cost of flights, you may receive up to £250 off your Remainder fee.)
- Remainder fee - is to cover the hotels, internal flights, transportation and activities.

Okay I wanna go, what do I do now?

Let me know you want to go and pay your initial deposit £100 (email address required for receipt).

Do you have any last minute advice?

Travel light, be open to change, and enjoy everything!!
